

The objective for this event, is to bring art kids and families. Kicking off the summer art program, we will showcase the work of Linzie Hunter through the gallery. On opening night we will have an interactive event where kids will get to create art with the artist as well as enjoy a live reading of her new book.